Canadian Mechanical and Plumbing Expo (CMPX) Returns this March Bigger, Better & Bolder Than Ever Before

Canada's Largest HVAC + Plumbing Expo Offers Hands-On Exhibits, Groundbreaking Products, Real Solutions and Networking Opportunities – The Entire Industry Under One Roof

Toronto, ON (February 14, 2024) – The much-anticipated Canadian Mechanical and Plumbing Expo \(CMPX\) is gearing up for its return March 20-22, 2024 at the Metro Toronto Convention Centre, now taking place in the South Building. Jointly produced by the Heating, Refrigeration and Air Conditioning Institute of Canada (HRAI) and the Canadian Institute of Plumbing & Heating (CIPH), CMPX is recognized as the essential industry event. Promising three days of innovation, exploration, connection, and learning, it is the ultimate one-stop shop for the entire industry.

“CMPX 2024 is our most exciting show yet, with an extensive display of new and groundbreaking products, innovative solutions for practical challenges and an expansive show floor with a variety of industry exhibitors and world-class brands,” says Joanna Woo, CMPX Show Committee Chair. “The entire industry is coming together under one roof so attendees can stay ahead of the curve, strengthen their skills, unlock new opportunities, and learn how to future-proof their business.”

Show features attendees can expect:

With more than 500 exhibiting brands, industry pros can look forward to an expanded show floor featuring the latest equipment, services, and solutions. This year's expo also welcomes the industry's most complete education lineup, with more than 60 sessions where industry experts will engage in discussions on product advancements, best practices, and emerging trends shaping the field today.

Industry professionals will have access to more products and exhibits than ever before, across all categories, including heating, cooling, refrigeration, ventilation, plumbing, indoor air quality, building automation & control, sustainability, software, tools & instruments, technology and more.

The Social Hub and Podcast Theatre will provide a platform for networking, story-sharing, and knowledge exchange with some of the industry's most influential figures and podcasters including HVAC Know It All, HVAC Jess, Flyntone1, Plumbers World, Refrigeration Mentor, The Impetus, The Pipe Wrench, Gordon Bot Plumbing, and The Construction Life. Additionally, a new Product Demo Stage will offer hands-on experiences with cutting-edge products and technologies.

An added highlight of CMPX 2024 is the HVACR Skills Competition, offering secondary and post-secondary students a unique opportunity to showcase their talent, skills, and expertise.

Don't miss out on the biggest industry event of the year happening March 20-22, at the Metro Toronto Convention Centre, South Building.
